

Case Study 4: “Equipment donations and Biomedical and Engineering Support in Uganda”

This case study highlight the difficulties that health care professionals are facing while on assignment in developing countries due to lack of qualified Biomedical Engineers and technicians to support them.

Contact: Jean Ngoie, NHS Tayside, j.ngoie@dundee.ac.uk