

NHS SCOTLAND GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP: COVID-19 INFORMATION RESOURCE AND RESOURCES

Individual health workers are at the forefront of the response to COVID-19 and under almost unprecedented strain. The pandemic is passing from one continent to the other, affecting all in turn. This document contains information and resources designed to support NHS Scotland Global Citizenship’s global health community.

Please note that the information provided in this document is not an exhaustive list and we welcome the addition of further resources. this information will be updated on a regular basis.

INFORMATION AND RESOURCES
SCOTLAND AND WORLDWIDE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Daily COVID-19 updates: Scottish Government’s information about Covid-19 in Scotland • World Health Organization latest updates: Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) outbreak • Worldwide COVID-19 updates: World Health Organization situation reports
NHS SCOTLAND	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Latest guidance about COVID-19 from NHS Scotland and the Scottish Government, including social distancing and stay at home advice. Can be found here: NHS Inform • COVID-19 learning materials for staff working in health and social care can be accessed here: NHS Education for Scotland • COVID-19 background information, guidance and learning resources are also available here: Public Health Scotland

TRAVEL	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Foreign & Commonwealth Office (FCO) travel advice: coronavirus (COVID-19) • Fitfortravel information about coronavirus COVID-19
HUMANITARIAN	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Institute of Development Studies – K4D is publishing daily Health Evidence Summaries to signpost DFID and other UK government departments to the latest relevant evidence and discourse on COVID-19 to inform and support their response, publication can be found here; Institute of Development Studies – K4D • Evidence Aid – summaries of relevant emerging evidence from latest research, can be found here: Evidence Aid page • The Infectious Diseases Society of Southern Africa (IDSSA) has published: Operational guidance on service delivery to TB patients (drug-susceptible and drug-resistant) during the COVID-19 pandemic. • International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC) has produced a Risk communication and community engagement strategy for Africa – also available in French. • The Union has published a set of frequently asked questions regarding COVID-19 and lung health, focusing on its impact on TB services and the people undergoing TB treatment, and guidance to maintain quality care throughout this period, as well as recommendations and guidance for healthcare workers treating smokers with COVID-19 • Irish Global Health Network – resources for global health workers and health professionals – including weekly webinars can be found here: Irish Global Health Network page

- London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine: COVID-19 control in low-income settings and displaced populations: what can realistically be done?
- World Health Organization interim guidance: Humanitarian operations, camps, and other fragile settings as well as refugees and migrants in non-humanitarian and non-camp settings
- World Health Organisation has developed a Communication and Community Engagement \(RCCE\) Action Plan Guidance COVID-19 Preparedness and Response, and the accompanying Risk Communication and Community Engagement \(RCCE\) Action Plan Guidance
- The International Aids Society has published guidance on HIV and COVID-19.
- Disaster Ready offers two free online learning platform and COVID-19 specific playlists for those responding, both in English and French
- Scotland's Alliance for International Development information on COVID-19 includes a list of further resources.
- Bond's information on Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) for NGOs includes a list of further resources
- Latest situation, resources and support in Malawi can be accessed: Scotland Malawi Partnership page
- Save the Children have launched an online course 'The COVID-19 Learning Pathway' on the free learning platform Kaya, to support humanitarians' responses during this crisis, covering a number of critical topics, including Public Health, Child Protection and Gender/Equality.
- Communicating with Disaster Affected Communities (CDAC) network has published a resource list on COVID-19 covering health, communications and community engagement.

<h2 style="margin: 0;">FUNDERS</h2>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corra Foundation – a series of unrestricted immediate micro-grants have been offered directly to 31 organisations who have held Scottish Government small grants with Corra in the last year to help support their activities overseas and their partners at this difficult time (this is not an open grant call and is only open to these 31 organisations). • Scottish Government has created a £20m Third Sector Resilience Fund, with both grants and interest free loans available. The fund is now open for applications and can be accessed here: Third Sector Resilience Fund (Scotland) • The Tropical Health Education Trust (THET) to help with COVID-19 response efforts, the Health Worker Action Fund has been made available. • Charities Aid Foundation (CAF) fundraising guide can be accessed here: Charity resources page • Department For International Development (DFID) has funded four organisations though the H2H network (Internews, BBC Media Action, Evidence Aid and Translators without Borders) to improve access to quality information. Sign up to receive the newsletter and view back issues online. If you have any questions, requests for resources, or feedback you can email Internews at any time at COVID-19@internews.org
<h2 style="margin: 0;">OTHER INFORMATIVE RESOURCES</h2>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An assessment of the scientific evidence base to determine if the infection prevention and control measures applied in Scotland are suitable for the prevention and management of COVID-19 in healthcare settings. The review paper can be accessed here: Rapid Review of the literature: Assessing the infection prevention and control measures for the prevention and management of COVID-19 in health and care settings • Johns Hopkins University: resource centre on Coronavirus